ED WALSH WAS SUPERMAN OF BALL FIELD

By BILLY EVANS.

Ed Walsh, once famous pitcher of the Chicago White Sox, will live long his career.

Here are just a few high spots in the career of Walsh, from 1996 to 1912, his big years in baseball. Here 1763 is his 1906 record. Won 17 games and lost 13. In 10 of his 17 victories he scored shut outs. Pitched 3 one-hit games and worked in 13 games in which he allowed :

His record for the season was 24 games won and 18 lost, The season of 1908 was the biggest year in the career of Walsh.

The "Big Moose," as he was known by the ball players, worked in 66 games, nearly half the number played by his club.

Walsh started 49 times, finished 1; other games and managed to win 40 lose only 15 and tie 1 game. In a game against Cleveland he struck out 15 men in 8 innings, yet lost the game. In that contest Joss, pitching for Cleveland, shut out Chicago without a run or hit, not a play-er reaching first base.

He scored 12 shut outs In the last 9 cames of the season e worked in 7 of them.

The strain of the three previous years told on the old arm and the best Walsh could do was win 15 and lose 11. The Sox fluished fourth. 1910.
